Karimov Law Firm is a partnership united under the personal brand of its founder

Talking about personal brand, we mean dozens of large transactions, hundreds of inspections and trials, several thousand contracts during our 20 years of experience in law and management

We say "partnership", not "company", because we include in our bills only a fee of a specific partner for a specific task and costs directly related to the work. That is what makes our format of work unique and allows us to compete with the strongest law firms when remaining in an affordable price niche.
